Brief Descriptions:

To let children and parents experience Chinese New Year traditions, they learned how to write and make Fai Chun.

During the Chinese New Year party, children wore red or traditional clothes, and each class gave performances: K1 did a catwalk show, K2 performed a traditional dance, and K3 presented a lion dance. Children tasted some Chinese festive food as well.

Parents and children were encouraged to design Lunar New Year hanging decoration by using strong Chinese characteristics materials. All the craft works were displayed in the school corridor for everyone to enjoy and vote.
